

Sidney B

Born in Nice, France; currently living in Los Angeles and having traveled all over the world—including living and making music with indigenous people on a small South Pacific island – Sidney B has explored and immersed himself in almost every genre of music there is.

From the house beats of Europe through the funk of Latin America to the lyrical rap of the US, each area has imparted its unique music influence on Sidney, who now brings these styles together into an irresistible pop package.

DEBUT SINGLE “E=mc2”

For his debut single, Sidney B takes us to space for an ode to eternal love with “E=mc2”.

A fresh radio ready track, that will remind you the finest hours of Pop Music, with its infectious groove and catchy hooks. “E=mc2” sets the tone of a year long of releases as Sidney B will drop a new single for each month of 2019.

“E=mc2” is the first step of an incredible journey through funk and positivity.” - Sidney B
